Final Order No. 41732/2017

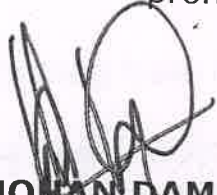

Per Bench

The appellants had imported old and used photocopiers and as the imports were ^{d after} ~~prior~~ to 19.10.2005, the same were restricted goods. The learned counsel Shri A.K. Jayaraj, submitted that the appellant is not contesting the enhancement of value of Rs.6,90,461/- and that the contest is confined only to imposition of redemption fine and penalty. He submitted that the redemption fine and penalty imposed is Rs.1,75,000/- and Rs.1,25,000/- respectively.

2. The learned counsel submitted that the redemption fine and penalties imposed are without basis as the adjudicating authority has not considered the margin of profit or the comparable goods in order to ascertain the market value.
3. The learned AR Shri B. Balamurugan reiterated the findings in the impugned order.
4. We have heard the submissions made by both sides. As seen from the value enhanced as well as the redemption fine and penalty imposed, we are of the opinion that the redemption fine and penalty is high and requires interference.
5. In the result, taking into consideration the facts and appreciating the evidence before us, we reduce the redemption fine and penalty to Rs.1,00,000/- (Rupees one lakh only) and Rs.75,000/- (Rupees seventy five thousand only) respectively.
6. In the result, the appeal is partly allowed with the above observations without interfering in the enhancement of value. The appellant is eligible for consequential relief, if any, as per law.

(Operative portion of the order was pronounced in open court)
