Final ORDER NO. 425/2011 SM (Bx) &

PER: ASHOK JINDAL

S-398/11 SM M-92/2011 SM (Bx)

The appellants have filed appeal alongwith application for condonation of delay in filing the appeal before this Tribunal.

2. In the application for condonation of delay, the appellants have stated that the appellants have taken over the management 21.06.2010. As per MOU, any liability is to be borne by out going management. Therefore, when the impugned order dated 27.10.2010 was received by them was sent to the out going management to take proper action but <sup>they</sup> failed to do so. As the appellants are liable to pay liability of the appellant firm, therefore, took steps for filing the appeal which caused delay of 30 days in filing the appeal. Considering the reason for causing the delay are satisfactory, the application for condonation of delay in filing the is allowed.

3. The facts of the case are that the appellants are availing the GTA service and are not service tax thereon. Therefore, during the course of audit, it was found that neither the appellants are paying service tax on amount of freight paid to the transporters nor they are filing the periodical returns. Therefore, the show cause notice was issued which was adjudicated and the demand was confirmed alongwith interest and equivalent amount of penalty under Section 76 of Finance Act, 1994 read with Section 11AC of Central Excise Act, 1944. The adjudication order was confirmed by the first appellate authority. Aggrieved by the said order, the appellant is in appeal before this Tribunal.

4. Shri Mayank Garg, Advocate, learned Counsel appeared for the appellants and submitted that the appellants are not challenging the liability of service tax and interest. Their prayer is their case may be dealt with under Section 80 of Finance Act, 1994 and the penalty should be waived as during the period the brother of the director who was dealing with excise matters was taking care his brother who was undergone for kidney transplant treatment. Therefore, due to bonafide mistake, they could not deposit service tax in time and could not file required returns. The appellants may be given the benefit of Section 80 of Finance Act, 1994.

5. After hearing both sides, I find that the issue involved is in a narrow compass, therefore, after waiving pre-deposit, I take up the appeal for final disposal. I have gone through the records also where the appellants have taken the plea before the adjudicating authority due to financial crisis, they could not deposit the service tax in time and before the Commissioner (Appeals), they have taken another defence plea that they are pre occupation the appellant with the treatment of his brother for kidney failure. The appellants are not entitled for the benefit of Section 80 of Finance Act, 1994. Therefore, the penalty equal to service tax is confirmed. I have seen the impugned order and the adjudication order wherein the appellants were not given an option to pay 25% of service tax as penalty as per proviso 1 and 2 of Section 11AC of the Finance Act, 1944 which has been extended to service tax matters. Therefore, I give an option to the appellants to pay 25% of service tax as penalty within thirty days of communication of this order, failing which the appellants shall liable to pay 100% service tax as penalty.

6. With these observations, the appeal as well stay petition is disposed of
