DATE OF DECISION: 18.05.2026

FINAL ORDER NO. 50912/2026

JUSTICE DILIP GUPTA:

Surendran K¹ has filed this appeal to assail that portion of the order dated 28.06.2023 passed by the Principal Commissioner of Customs ICD (Import), Tughlakabad² that imposes a penalty upon the appellant under section 112(a) (ii) of the Customs Act, 1962³.

2. The appellant is a Director of M/s Three Aces Global Logistics Pvt. Ltd, which is a Customs House agent, and had also filed Customs Appeal No. 55333 of 2023 which has been allowed by order of date.

1 the appellant
2 the Principal Commissioner
3 the Customs Act

3. It transpires from the record that M/s Three Aces Global Logistics had filed a Bill of Entry on behalf of M/s Vanesa Cosmetics Pvt. Ltd for imports of "Actuator, Valve, Pocket spray Bottle" meant for scent spray and similar toilet sprays during the period from 2017-2020 for imports at ICD TKD, New Delhi and Air Cargo, New Delhi. The Directorate of Revenue Intelligence conducted an investigation on the misclassification of the imported goods and a show cause notice dated 07.07.2022 was issued to M/s Vanesa Cosmetics Pvt Ltd as also to the appellant and M/s Three Aces Global Logistics. The appellant filed a detailed reply to the show cause notice and contested the allegations made. However, the Principal Commissioner, by the order dated 28.06.2023, not only confirmed the demand of differential customs duty from the importer as the goods were misclassified, but also imposed penalty upon the appellant and M/s Three Aces Global Logistics under section 112(a)(ii) of the Customs Act.

4. Penalty has been imposed upon the appellant for the reason that the short payment demand has been determined on account of suppression of facts or willful statement.

5. Shri T. Chakrapani, learned consultant for the appellant submitted that the classification dispute is a matter of opinion and penalty cannot be imposed for this reason. Learned consultant pointed out that the past Bills of Entries were physically examined and given out of charge based on the classification declared by the importer. Learned consultant also pointed out that M/s Three Aces Global Logistics had acted on the declaration, information and documents provided by the importer and there is no evidence on record to suggest that the appellant had connived with the imported for alleged improper import.

6. Shri M.K. Shukla, learned authorized representative appearing for the department, however, supported the impugned order.

7. Penalty under section 112 (a) (ii) is imposed if goods are liable to confiscation under section 111 of the Customs Act.

8. The view taken by the Principal Commissioner that the goods were liable to confiscation under section 111(m) of the Customs Act cannot be sustained merely for the reason that there was some misclassification by the importer or the Customs Broker. This is what was held by a Division Bench of this Tribunal in Challenger Cargo Cargo Carriers Pvt Ltd vs. Principal Commissioner of Customs (Import) Inland Container Depot, Tughlakabad, New Delhi⁴ and The relevant observations are as follows:

“20.Section 111(m) does not provide for confiscation of goods if the importer or on his behalf, the Customs Broker claims any wrong classification in the Bill of Entry. It only provides for confiscation if there is mis-declaration of goods. Even if the goods are mis-classified or duty is otherwise wrongly self-assessed by the importer, the goods do not become liable for confiscation.”

9. As the goods could not be confiscated, the imposition of penalty upon the appellant under section 112(a) (ii) of the Customs Act cannot be sustained.

10. The impugned order so far as it imposes penalty upon the appellant is, accordingly, set aside and the appeal is allowed.

(Order pronounced on 18.05.2026)
